

CCW Minutes for October 1, 2014

October meeting opened with a Hail Mary and Pledge of Allegiance.

19 members were present.

A motion was accepted by Gerry Klock with corrections for September 2014 minutes.

Treasurer report was read and filed for audit. Gerry Klock made a motion to move $5,000 from checking account to savings account. All members were in favor.

Lorraine Eachus spoke about the Tea Party. 12 tables were filled. $930.00 was collected. Everything went well setting up. She suggested making a change for next year with the Knights that they can walk the ladies to their table. Mary Magdalene church sent a beautiful Thank you note and a donation.

Genevieve Mueller went over the budget and gave each member a new budget.

Recipe book cut off is Sunday, October 7, 2014. Gerry Klock made a motion to sell the cookbook for $10.00. All members agreed. The following members agreed to proof read the cookbook: Anna Seymour, Donna Brado, Nancy Miller, and Lorraine Eachus. Gerry Klock made a motion to put Monica and Joe Bahm on the acknowledgement page. All members agreed.

Lorraine Eachus made a motion for the profits of the cookbook to go to CCW and add to the acknowledgement page, "The proceeds will go to the good works of St. Boniface Council of Catholic Women." All members were in favor.

Deanery meeting is Saturday, October 4, 2014.

Yvette Carr spoke about the chicken dinner she needs more volunteers to make pound cakes.

Charline Reynolds spoke about the Craft Fair on Saturday, November 15, 2014. She passed around sign-up sheets for the bake sale. She also talked about a lighted, double sided 40x96 sign with stand to put outside for all events the church has. The cost would be around $715.00 for everything including additional letters. She will do more research on this and speak with other church committees. Yvette Carr made a motion to discuss this for a future meeting. All members agreed.

Gerry Klock and Yvette Carr went to a Statesboro meeting. They had some great ideas. They discussed doing prayer partner cards. Cards were passed to all members. Gerry Klock made a motion to do the prayer partner cards. All members were in favor.

Lorraine Eachus spoke about the Deanery meeting that St. Boniface CCW will be hosting in April 2015. Yvette Carr made a motion to have the Deanery meeting on Saturday, April 25th. All members were in favor.

Birthdays were celebrated for October 2014. Door prizes were done. Closing prayer was followed with refreshments.

Respectfully submitted: Janet Frazier, Secretary