New Business

Communion Wine will be placed on hold until flu season is over per a recommendation from Bishop Hartmeyer but don't worry it will return.

The Nursery Door will be switched with the Confessional door and cut in half so that parents will hand children over the door and the bottom will not be opened for safety reasons.

Family Promise will be at St. Boniface on Feb 18th for the week. Eventually the families will move into static housing and the churches will deliver food and stay at the new housing. The committee will pass on details as they become available.

CCW will host its Marti Gras pancake dinner on Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Finance Update- Mark Czachowski

Quarterly Financial Review for Parish will include a balance sheet and things that are unusual expenses. Idea is to show how grateful we are and that we are being good stewards with the church funds.

Father's Update- Fr. Martino

Five churches came to the Ecumenical Dinner and it was decided to have a later time for the event but to watch the football schedule as to not have it on the semi- finals or Super Bowl.

Fr. James will be celebrating his last mass at the Orthodox Church in Rincon this weekend. (Jan. 21) We will send him flowers.

Lenten theme this year will be about prayer and a small mass book (journal) to take notes on the Homily will be given out to the members.

Also, black books (like the blue Advent books but for Lent) will be distributed to the parish.

Father will be hosting a retreat at St. Boniface the weekend of Feb. 17 & 18 for a few people so some new faces will be around that weekend.
