Understanding the Scriptures

Third Sunday of Easter (Year B)

Jesus in today's Gospel, teaches His apostles how to interpret the Scriptures.

He tells them that all the Scriptures of what we now call the Old Testament refer to Him. He says that all the promises found in the Old Testament have been fulfilled in His passion, death, and resurrection. And He tells them that these Scriptures foretell the mission of the Church - to preach forgiveness of sins to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

In today's First Reading and Epistle, we see the beginnings of that mission. And we see the apostles interpreting the Scriptures as Jesus taught them to.

God has brought to fulfillment what He announced beforehand in all the prophets, Peter preaches. His sermon is shot through with Old Testament images. He evokes Moses and the exodus, in which God revealed himself as the ancestral God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (see Exodus 3:6,15). He identifies Jesus as Isaiah's suffering servant who has been glorified (see Isaiah 52:13).

John too describes Jesus in Old Testament terms. Alluding to how Israel's priests offered blood sacrifices to atone for the people's sins (see Leviticus 16; Hebrews 9-10), he says that Jesus intercedes for us before God (see Romans 8:34), and that His blood is a sacrificial expiation for the sins of the world (see 1 John 1:7).

Notice that in all three readings, the Scriptures are interpreted to serve and advance the Church's mission - to reveal the truth about Jesus, to bring people to repentance, the wiping away of sins, and the perfection of their love for God.

This is how we, too, should hear the Scriptures. Not to know more "about" Jesus, but to truly know Him personally, and to know His plan for our lives.

In the Scriptures, the light of His face shines upon us, as we sing in today's Psalm. We know the wonders He has done throughout history. And we have the confidence to call to Him, and to know that He hears and answers.

Third Sunday of Easter Year B

First Reading — Acts 3:13-15, 17-19: "Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 4: "Lord, let your face shine on us."

Second Reading — I John 2:1-5: "But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him."

Gospel — Luke 24:35-48: "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself."

April 14, 2024-3rd Sunday of Easter
“Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you. “But they were startled and frightened...” - Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to “see the face of Jesus” in others and to “be the face of Jesus” to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide “peace” to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a “God-centered” life and not a “self-centered” life.

14 de abril de 2024-3er Domingo de Pascua
“Jesús se presentó en medio de ellos y les dijo: “la Paz sea con ustedes”, pero estaban atónitos y asustados...”- Lucas 24:36-37

Durante el día tenemos muchas oportunidades para “ver el rostro de Jesús” en otras personas y de “ser el rostro de Jesús” para otros. ¿Tomamos la oportunidad de proveer “paz” a los que nos encontramos, o estamos temerosos de lo que otros pensarán de nosotros y no hacemos nada? Rece para tener la fortaleza y el coraje de vivir una vida “centrada en Dios” y no una vida “centrada en sí mismo”.

3rd Sunday of Easter

After an intense disagreement or argument, it can be very difficult to get back to normal, especially when ugly things were said, or nasty comments were made. Even when we know it was done out of anger or frustration, the hurt can linger and hold us back from reconciling. Is it necessary to forgive and forget? Just how do you move on after being hurt?

It is easy to forgive, but very difficult to forget. When we forgive someone, we are looking beyond the offense to acknowledge the value and worth of the offender. Jesus did the same for us. While we yet sinners, He died for us. He saw and knew our worth in the sight of God. He did not forget our sin. He knew it well. Forgetting is not a component of forgiving. Sometimes we just move on. We focus on the positive things in our relationship, in our family and in our lives. We do not dwell on the past, but rather move forward by loving others as we should. Grace and virtue, particularly faith, hope and love, have a healing power that makes us whole. We feel not only the destructive power of sin in our life, but also the restorative power of grace. So, forgive others as God forgives you and then move on and let grace do the rest.
