 - Spiritual Growth: some discussion was held about the meals for the Faith Sharing program scheduled for August 24th from 9 to 2 PM. Fr. Martino suggested to ask Victoria to prepare the food, if she is not available we will get sandwiches from Subway or Chick fil-A. Emma volunteered to bring a few dozens of donuts. Fr. will send an email one week prior to all leaders as reminder and to confirm attendance. Polo will find an appropriate time to include Carolyn's talk about the biggest lie in history of Christianity by Matthew Kelly during the session.
 - All is set for the Small Study group to start this week on "The Mass" by Bishop Barron (August 8). Carolyn will lead the sessions when Polo is out of town.

- Father Martino's comments:
 1. There construction of the rectory is on hold but should be cleared soon.
 2. The CCD is full for the 2019-2020 cycle, we need to start thinking about options to meet the needs; in a couple of years the space will not be enough.
 3. He read the book "Letter to a suffering church" by Bishop Barron provided by Dale and agreed to gather all available books and pick a weekend to talk about the topic and offer the books to take home and read.
 4. He is considering the use of "The Mass" videos in some of his coming homilies.

The Next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September 10 at 7 PM.

- Fr. closed with a prayer.
- There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 8:40PM

Respectfully submitted: Polo Rodriguez
