Father Abraham,

HAVE PITY ON ME.

SEND LAZARUS

TO DIP THE TIP

OF HIS FINGER

IN WATER

AND COOL

MY TONGUE.

- Luke 16:24

September 25, 2022
Twenty-sixth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

You know, there is nothing wrong with studying and working hard, and building up stability and wealth for your family. It is a good and positive thing to have money for retirement, vacations, or even to have a little nest egg in case of an emergency. But with those blessings comes more responsibility. This is where the rich man in today's Gospel parable fails miserably. Wearing finery and having gourmet meals is not a sin, but he does nothing to reach out his hand to aid Lazarus or those in need around him.

From what we know, the Gospel doesn't say the rich man was rude to Lazarus, or that he scoffed at the poor man. His sin was one of omission. He simply put his blinders on and failed to see. He didn't send a meal out to him or have someone from his household check on the man. He just left him there to suffer.

LIVE RESPONSIBLY AND SHARE WHAT YOU HAVE

In heaven, Lazarus is raised and freed from his sufferings, while the rich man suffers greatly in the flames of hell. He implores God to send a messenger to his family, but God tells him that since they ignored the messages of Moses and the Prophets, nothing is going to change them, not even someone coming from the dead. Sadly, sometimes we fear and avoid street people because we suspect them of drug abuse, mental illness or, nowadays, carrying the Covid virus. Don't use that as an excuse to write them off. Write a check to your parish or favorite charity. Make a donation to the food pantry or, better yet, sign up for a shift to work in the food pantry as a family and make it a teachable moment. Pay it forward. Invite someone who is with you to join in your family meal. When you go in to grab a coffee pick up an extra and give it to the first person you see who needs it. Learn the lesson of the parable, and open your eyes and your heart to the needs of others around you.

Today's Readings: Am 6:1a, 4-7; Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10;
1 Tm 6:11-16; Lk 16:19-31

25 de septiembre de 2022
Vigésimo Sexto Domingo
del Tiempo Ordinario

No hay nada malo en estudiar y trabajar duro, y en acumular estabilidad y riqueza para tu familia. Es algo bueno y positivo tener dinero para la jubilación, las vacaciones o incluso tener un pequeño nido de huevos en caso de emergencia. Pero con esas bendiciones viene más responsabilidad. Aquí es donde el hombre rico de la parábola del Evangelio de hoy fracasa estrepitosamente. Llevar galas y tener comidas gourmet no es un pecado, pero no hace nada para extender su mano para ayudar a Lázaro o a los necesitados de su entorno.

Por lo que sabemos, el Evangelio no dice que el hombre rico fuera grosero con Lázaro, o que se burlara del pobre. Su pecado fue de omisión. Simplemente se puso sus anteojeras y no vio. No le envió una comida ni hizo que alguien de su casa se ocupara del hombre. Simplemente lo dejó allí para que sufriera.

VIVE CON RESPONSABILIDAD Y
COMPARTE LO QUE TIENES

En el cielo, Lázaro es resucitado y liberado de sus sufrimientos, aunque el hombre rico sufre mucho en las llamas del infierno. Implora a Dios que envíe un mensajero a su familia, pero Dios le dice que, puesto que han ignorado los mensajes de Moisés y de los profetas, nada va a cambiarles, ni siquiera alguien que venga de entre los muertos. Lamentablemente, a veces tememos y evitamos a la gente de la calle porque sospechamos que son drogadictos, enfermos mentales o, hoy en día, portadores del virus Covid. No uses eso como excusa para descartarlos. Haz un cheque a tu parroquia o a tu organización benéfica favorita. Haz un donativo a la despensa de alimentos o, mejor aún, apúntate a un turno para trabajar en la despensa de alimentos en familia y conviértelo en un momento de enseñanza. Repartan el dinero. Invita a alguien que esté contigo a participar en tu comida familiar. Cuando vayas a tomar un café, coge uno de más y dáselo a la primera persona que veas que lo necesita. Aprende la lección de la parábola y abre tus ojos y tu corazón a las necesidades de los demás a tu alrededor.

Lecturas de hoy: Am 6:1a, 4-7; Sal 146 (145):7, 8-9, 9-10;
1 Tm 6:11-16; Lc 16:19-31

September 25, 2022 -26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established...”

Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today’s Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

25 de septiembre de 2022 -Domingo 26<sup>o</sup> del Tiempo

Ordinario- “Amigo, recuerda que durante tu vida terrena recibiste muchos bienes, y que Lázaro, en cambio, solamente recibió males. Pues bien, ahora él goza aquí de consuelo y a ti te toca sufrir. Más aun, entre nosotros y ustedes hay un abismo infranqueable ...”. Lucas 16:25-26

Cuando Dios creo el universo declaró lo que era bueno y se lo dio a la humanidad para que lo disfrutara. Sin embargo, a lo largo de los años hemos creado un abismo entre los que recibieron grandes dones y los que no. En el Evangelio de hoy vemos que con nuestra propia generosidad debemos cerrar la brecha que permita unir a aquellos que tienen mucho con los que tienen poco, o nos podremos encontrar en el lado equivocado del abismo en la próxima vida.

CARE FOR EACH OTHER

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must “pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.” Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another.

Weekly Announcements

Faith Formation News

The next Faith Formation class is this Sunday, September 25 from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. We will begin with prayer and announcements in the parish hall. At dismissal, please remember to wait for your students along the sidewalk in front of the Faith Formation building.

We are looking for substitute catechists; if you are interested, please contact Sara Folland. Volunteers need to have their VIRTUS Protecting God's Children training, background check, and code of conduct completed and up to date. If you have any questions about Faith Formation, please contact Sara Folland at DRE@sbcatholic.com or (912) 754-7473, extension 24.

Thank You

The Frazier family would like to thank everyone who sent cards, and Mass intentions for my husband Jim. Also, I want to send a special thank you to the 5o'clock choir for singing at the memorial service, you all sang so beautiful. Thank you, Janet Frazier

Do You Have Questions about Medicare and Health Insurance Options?

Melissa McBride Stille with Stille-DeWitt Health Brokerage will be here for two separate sessions on Monday, October 3 and October 24 from 9am-12pm to assist with any questions you may have regarding your health insurance. She can help with questions about Medicare options and individual health insurance. If you would like to speak with her, please feel free to stop by. Or if you would like to make an appointment, please call her at 912-239-7119. It would be helpful to bring a list of your medications, list of doctors and your current insurance cards.

Welcome Newcomers

The next welcome breakfast for 2022 will be held on October 9th at 9:30 AM. All new parishioners who registered at St. Boniface after January 2022 are invited to enjoy a light breakfast and meet with Fr. Martino, fellow new parishioners, and some parish group leaders. PLEASE RSVP to Dale and Dawn De Roia at 912-596-6186 or 912 660-4695 or email to dderoia401@comcast.net. Deadline to RSVP is October 4th. We are looking forward to meeting you and your families. Yours truly, Dale and Dawn De Roia

Boston Butt Sales

The Knights of Columbus are selling Boston Butt tickets through October 22, 2022. Pick up date will be October 29, from 11 am to 2pm in the church parking lot.

Respect Life Sunday

The month of October is Respect Life; from conception to natural death. Our plans for Respect Life Sunday will be a little different this year. Due to tensions being so high on the current ruling of the Supreme Court decision on Respecting Life from conception to natural death and for the safety of our parishioners, we will not hold a life chain. Instead we plan on holding a live Rosary on Sunday, October 23, 2022 after the 11 am Mass. What is a live Rosary? We will stand in the shape of the Rosary, each person representing a prayer on the Rosary and reciting the prayer. There are 72 prayers, so we are in need of at least 72 people to make this successful! Next weekend, we will have sign up sheets available in the back of the church. We encourage you to be part of Respect Life Sunday and show your support.

Sponsor a Local Family

St Boniface parishioners have generously supplied over 120 local families with Thanksgiving dinner each year. Please prayerfully consider grabbing a paper bag from the table in the narthex, shopping from the list provided, and returning it to the church by November 1st. We would also like to provide each family with a $10.00 Kroger gift card to help pay for their meat of choice. Bags will be in the Narthex beginning the weekend of October 2nd.

As you know, prices for food have almost doubled and it is getting harder and harder for some families to put food on the table. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact St Boniface Outreach at 912-754-7473.

"Do small things with great love" Blessed Saint Teresa

Calling All Students

Outreach is looking for students to help with set up and distribution of food bags during Thanksgiving break. This is a great opportunity to complete mandatory service hours. Please contact Denise Burdick to volunteer.

The VIRTUS Protecting God's Children training is required for all volunteers and employees in the Diocese of Savannah. Training sessions can be found on the Diocesan website at www.diosav.org, under the offices tab for child & youth protection. There are currently no sessions in our immediate area.
